Speaker: Eld Lee Soo Ann

Text : Romans 8: 18 - 30

Title : Purposeful Providence

1. Key verse in the letter to the Romans is Romans 8:28, “All things work together for good.”
2. Good refers to God’s goodness, not ours.
3. Two categories of persons – those who love God, and those whom God calls.
4. Abraham typifies the first and he was tested as to whether he would obey God.
5. God provides the lamb substitute as Abraham persisted in faith. Jesus is the sacrificial lamb and His death provides life to us.
6. Paul typifies the second and God calls him though he hated God.
7. The resurrected Jesus appeared to Paul and sustains him through many tests.
8. Whether it is the death or life of Jesus, God does provide for all things to work together for good.
